GREETING

Pastor: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: God of wisdom,

All: You have the power to forgive and restore our lives,
just as you did for Job.

Accept our remorse for where we have walked astray
and bring us back into relationship with you,
for the sake of Jesus Christ,
Amen.

DRAMATIC READING: JOB 41:1-8; 42:1-17

Lord: “Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, or press down its tongue with a cord? Can you put a rope in its nose, or pierce its jaw with a hook? Will it make many supplications to you? Will it speak soft words to you? Will it make a covenant with you to be taken as your servant forever? Will you play with it as with a bird, or will you put it on leash for your girls? Will traders bargain over it? Will they divide it up among the merchants? Can you fill its skin with harpoons, or its head with fishing spears? Lay hands on it; think of the battle; you will not do it again!”

Narrator: Then Job answered the Lord:

Job: “I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted. ‘Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?’ Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. ‘Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you declare to me.’ I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes.”

Narrator: After the Lord had spoken these words to Job, the Lord said to Eliphaz the Temanite:

Lord: “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has. Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept his prayer not to deal with you according to your folly; for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done.”

Narrator: So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what the Lord had told them; and the Lord accepted Job’s prayer. And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

GOSPEL: LUKE 8: 22 - 25

Pastor: The holy gospel according to Luke

All: Glory to you, O Lord

<sup>22</sup>One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they put out, <sup>23</sup>and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A windstorm swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. <sup>24</sup>They went to him and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup>He said to them, "Where is your faith?" They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

Pastor: The gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

LEADER: We pray for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.

LEADER: You love a humble heart, O Lord, and you hear us when we sincerely repent. Make us thankful for your patience and grace when we are far from deserving it. Merciful God,

ALL: hear our prayer.

LEADER: As we celebrate our nation's independence, may we prize our citizenship in your kingdom above all other identities and work to ensure liberties for all your people on earth. Merciful God,

ALL: hear our prayer.

LEADER: We have been entrusted with the care of all your creatures, both great and small. Forgive us our failure to protect and cherish them, and teach us a better way of coexisting with our animal sisters and brothers. Merciful God,

ALL: hear our prayer.

LEADER: Show us where we are needed to comfort those who are suffering, trusting that your Spirit will be present with us. Heal those in need, especially Audrey, Kevin, Nam Sun, Phil, Lauren, Karin, Robin, Ruth, Mercedes, Sue, Sigrun, Shirley, Gene, Nancy, Christina, Irene, Diane, Pat, Elinor, Dorine, Richard, those battling the coronavirus and those we name silently and aloud (brief silence). May they know that their lives are in your ever-healing hands. Merciful God,

ALL: hear our prayer.

LEADER: As our Evangelical Lutheran Church in America celebrates the 50th ordination of women - we give you thanks for those women who are daughters of Elim who went on to become ordained, those women pastors and deacons who have served us, including Pastor Kathryn, and for our Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton. As you have called them to serve you in Christ's church, may other women continue to hear your call to be pastors and deacons in your church. Merciful God,

ALL: hear our prayer.

LEADER: O God, bless all those celebrating birthdays, anniversaries and celebrations of all kinds, this week. Fill our hearts with love and acceptance. Merciful God,

ALL: hear our prayer.

The prayers conclude:

LEADER: Receive our prayers and use us to be the answers to the needs of your people, for the sake of Jesus,

ALL: Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.
